Texas Economic Development & Tourism | Office of Governor Greg Abbott

Texas named the nation’s ‘Best State for Business’ for the 17th consecutive year.

Texas named the ‘State of the Decade’ in 2020.

Texas received Area Development Magazine’s ‘2021 Gold Shovel Award’.

Texas is home to 49 Fortune 500 Company Headquarters.

For the 10th consecutive year, Texas was awarded Site Selection’s Governor’s Cup.

Texas named the ‘Best State to Start a Business’ in 2021.

Texas is #1 for jobs created by African American, Hispanic and Veteran women business owners.

Texas ranked as the state with the lowest business cost.

Six Texas colleges ranked among the top 100 schools on U.S. News’ ‘Best National Universities’ list for 2021.

In 2021, Texas ranked #1 for Installed Wind Power Capacity and Semiconductors.

Texas took the top spot on Site Selection’s 2021 Global Groundwork Index State Ranking.

Texas was ranked #1 for population growth during the pandemic.

Texas metros represent three of the top fifteen areas with the Most Minority-Owned Startups.

Texas metros are among the Milken Institute’s Top 10 ‘Best-Performing Cities’.

Texas was ranked the #1 corporate move destination in 2020 for the 6th straight year.

Texas took two of the top 10 spots on the ‘Best Cities to Work in Tech’ list.

Revised March 2022