

Office of the Texas Governor Child Sex Trafficking Team

Greetings and Happy Holidays!

As the year winds down and we enter the holiday season, we hope this newsletter will provide you with valuable tools as you embark on a new year of anti-trafficking work.

This edition includes information on upcoming funding opportunities, informative training events and a community spotlight from South Texas.

Thank you for another year of committed anti-trafficking work across Texas and valuable support to those who have experienced commercial sexual exploitation.

Have a very peaceful and blessed holiday season!

Warmest regards,

The Child Sex Trafficking Team

The Texas Model for Care Coordination, FY 2026

The purpose of this funding opportunity is to support programs to implement the Texas Model for Care Coordination for Commercially Sexually Exploited Youth (CSEY). The Care Coordination Model is a consensus-driven, collaborative approach to identify and recover CSEY, and to facilitate tailored, accessible, trauma-informed, and holistic resources through a coordinated network of providers. The target population is youth (0-17) with an option to serve transition-age youth (18-24), capacity permitting. View Funding Opportunity

CSTT Monthly Webinar Series

An Empowering Solution to Human Trafficking Utilizing the Power of Youth Voice

Project Protect Our Children

January 28, 2025 | Virtual

In this webinar, you will learn how Project Protect Our Children, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to preventing child sex trafficking, exploitation, and abuse through proactive community engagement, preventative educational programming, awareness, and empowerment opportunities, has created a Youth Action Board (YAB) to plan and implement human trafficking awareness events and activities. The Project Protect Our Children YAB program is youth-led, research-based and survivor-informed.

YAB members are called to action, are encouraged to use their passion to make a difference and are given a platform for their voices to be heard. Collectively, youth learn about human trafficking and then collaborate, brainstorm, and reflect on solutions and project ideas to raise awareness among their peers and community. This program is age-appropriate for middle and/or high school students and with approval, will launch as a college program in January 2025.

Responding to Sextortion Related Offenses Against Children

National Criminal Justice Training Center

January 23, 2025 | Virtual

Sextortion using technology is an increasing trend seen by law enforcement. Sextortion is a crime where someone employs an abuse of power, usually a threat to expose explicit images, in order to coerce a person to do something. This 1-day training will identify the methods and tactics used by offenders and describe why youth are vulnerable to these tactics. The training will explain the long-term impact of these crimes on victims, offer a victim-centered response, and provide information on reporting these crimes to law enforcement, National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, and electronic service provider(s). This course will conclude with identifying effective Sextortion prevention messages for youth, parents, and educators.

2025 Mental Health Creative Arts Contest

In recognition of May as Mental Health Awareness Month, the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC), in partnership with the Texas System of Care and Texas Institute for Excellence in Mental Health at The University of Texas at Austin, presents the 2025 Mental Health Creative Arts Contest for children and adults.

This annual event is designed to shine a light on furthering the effort to reduce stigma around accessing help for mental health. Through their entries, contestants help demystify mental illness and spread awareness by sharing their unique expressions of what mental health looks and feels like to them. As a result, this encourages more people of all ages to seek help when needed.

The theme of this event is “What does mental health and well-being mean to you? Hurt. Healing. Hope.” Both children and adults may participate through their respective age groups: Elementary, Middle School, High School, and Adult.

Categories:

- Writing (story, essay, poem no longer than 300 words)
- Traditional Artwork
- Photography
- Digital Artwork
- Multimedia

The contest opens on November 1, 2024, and all entries are due no later 5:00 p.m. Central Time, Friday, March 1, 2025.

For more information and to submit an entry for the contest, please visit the Submit Art webpage.

Community Spotlight

The Texas Emergency Network Diversion Court

The Texas Emergency Network Diversion (TEND) Court is a Specialty Court that serves youth in CPS foster care at risk of sexual exploitation in Webb County. Inspired by Dr. Frances Bernat of Texas A&M International University (TAMIU), who recognized the unmet needs of exploited youth in South Texas, TEND began its fourth year on October 1, 2024.

TEND Court is overseen by Child Protective Services Court Judge Selina Mireles in Webb County, Texas. Its goal is to provide networked services to youth in Child Protective Services when gaps exist in their provision of care.

In TEND Court's first year, Judge Mireles hired Ms. Eliza Cavazos as an Executive Director to assist the Specialty Court in the identification of at-risk youth. TEND Court uses the Commercial Sexual Exploitation Identification Tool (CSE-IT) to identify youth who are between ages 10 to 17 that are a clear concern for possible risk of exploitation. Once identified, both Judge Mireles and Ms. Cavazos utilize Trust Based Relational Intervention techniques to allow youth opportunities to meet with the court and share their concerns and needs.

TEND Court seeks to assist youth in moving from risk to resilience, utilizing the following short- and long-term goals: Trust with youth, Encourage youth to excel, Nurturing youth towards independence, and Discovering the world outside of trauma.

TEND Court has achieved many positive results among its youth who are, and will remain, the center of this prosocial, preventive court's focus.
