

Office of the Texas Governor Child Sex Trafficking Team

Greetings,

With winter fading, the vibrant Texas bluebonnets are beginning to bloom, welcoming us into a refreshing and rejuvenating spring! As we welcome spring, we remain inspired by the incredible efforts across our state to protect children and youth and support their healing from commercial sexual exploitation.

In this Spring Edition of our newsletter, you'll find valuable information and resources to raise awareness, prevent child abuse, and combat sexual assault. We also celebrate the launch of Care Coordination Teams to support children and youth, highlight a new training strategy for law enforcement and prosecutors to strengthen human trafficking investigations and prosecutions across Texas, and share upcoming webinars, training opportunities, and resources to support those who have experienced sexual assault or trafficking.

Thank you for partnering with us in this vital work. Together, we can continue making Texas a safer place for our children.

Warm regards,

The Child Sex Trafficking Team

Child Abuse Prevention Month and Sexual Assault Awareness & Prevention Month

April is around the corner, as is our observance of Child Abuse Prevention Month and Sexual Assault Awareness & Prevention Month. There are strong intersections between child sex trafficking, child abuse, and sexual assault.

- Child sex trafficking is a form of child abuse, and is codified as such under Section 261.001 of the Texas Family Code.
- Child sexual abuse increases vulnerability to exploitation. The National Survivor Study, published by Polaris in 2023, found that of 450 trafficking survivors surveyed, a staggering 84% experienced sexual abuse in their childhood.
- Sexual violence is present within human trafficking. A global study published by the Journal of Migration and Health in 2021 found that 54% of female trafficking survivors experienced sexual violence during their exploitation. Additionally, the National Human Trafficking Hotline reported 12% of all sex trafficking victims identified through hotline contacts between 2015 and 2021 experienced sexual abuse as a method of control.

We proudly stand alongside survivors, organizations, and communities who work tirelessly to prevent child abuse and sexual assault. Human Trafficking Institute (HTI)

The Child Sex Trafficking Team is proud to partner with the Human Trafficking Institute (HTI), an organization dedicated to combatting human trafficking at its source. HTI works within criminal justice systems to equip law enforcement and prosecutors with the training, resources, and expertise needed to identify and prosecute traffickers.

In our recent webinar, Strengthening Human Trafficking Investigations and Prosecutions: HTI's Approach in Texas, HTI introduced its mission and discussed a new pilot project aimed at enhancing human trafficking investigations and prosecutions across the state. The discussion covered trauma-informed investigations, the role of care coordination, and the importance of CSEY advocacy in building stronger case and achieving justice for survivors.

2025 National Crime Victims' Rights Week

Every April, the Office for Victims of Crime (OVC) leads communities throughout the country in their annual observances of National Crime Victims' Rights Week (NCVRW).

Through NCVRW we honor crime victims and survivors, recognize the professionals and volunteers who provide critical services to victims of crime, and raise awareness about crime victims' rights and services.

OVC is pleased to announce that NCVRW will be commemorated April 6–12, 2025, with the theme—

Connecting < KINSHIP > Healing

This year's theme of KINSHIP is a call to action to recognize that shared humanity should be at the center of supporting all survivors and victims of crime. KINSHIP is a state of being with survivors that drives vital connections and increases access to services, rights, and healing. KINSHIP is where victim advocacy begins.

For more information about National Crime Victims' Rights Week and activities around the country, visit the OVC Website.
