

Texas Military Preparedness Commission

Office of the Governor

Fort Hood

2024

OVERVIEW

The III Corps projects trained, ready forces to conduct the full range of military operations. Fort Hood supports the largest concentration of armored military capabilities. Fort Hood provides integrated installation support services to enable commanders to train and deploy their units while taking care of soldiers and their families.

UNITS & MISSIONS

III Corps is headquartered at Fort Hood and is a major unit of U.S. Army Forces Command. III Corps includes the 1st Cavalry Division; 13th Expeditionary Sustainment; 3rd Cavalry Regiment; 1st Medical Brigade; 36th Engineer Brigade; 89th MP Brigade; 504th Military Intelligence Brigade; 11th Signal Brigade; 3d Air Support Operations Group; 11th Military Police Battalion; 15th Military Intelligence Battalion; 79th Explosive Ordnance Disposal Battalion; 7-158th Aviation Battalion; 1st Army - Division West Headquarters; 120th Infantry Support Brigade; and Operational Test Command. Other units include the Army Medical and Dental Activity; 407th Army Field Support Brigade; 418th Contracting Support Brigade; 69th Air Defense Artillery Brigade; 48th Chemical Brigade; 85th Civil Affairs Brigade; and the Network Enterprise Center.

*This is not a complete list.

PROJECTS & PARTNERSHIPS

Fort Hood has strong relationships with its 27 surrounding communities and various government agencies and businesses. Fort Hood participates in a multitude of community activities including the Army Family Action Plan, Good Neighbor Program, Military Impacted Schools Association, Nature in Lights, Make a Difference Day, and more. Fort Hood also has agreements with multiple industries to provide training to soldiers and a unique academic partnership with Central Texas College and Texas A&M University - Central Texas. These academic partnerships provide continuing, quality education through the nationally recognized Texas A&M University System.

Statistics	Total Impact
Employment (Direct)	59,695
Employment (Direct& Indirect)	173,730
Output to the Texas Economy (in Billions)	$39.0
GDP (in Billions)	$22.8
Disposable Personal Income (in Billions)	$1.4

ECONOMIC IMPACT

Source: Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts, 2024

The Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts estimates the population directly affiliated with Fort Hood contributed at least $39 billion to the Texas economy in 2023. The Comptroller's economic impact analysis represents a conservative estimate of the economic importance of Fort Hood to Texas. Each installation's distinctive characteristics contribute to the Texas economy in different ways. This analysis uses a consistent model to determine the economic impact of each of the state's military installations to the state's economic growth. For more information about this assessment, please visit <https://comptroller.texas.gov/economy/economic-data/military/2023/>.

