Travelers to and within Texas spent $82.9 billion across the state, which contributes significant tax revenue to both state and local governments. Without travel, Texas households would each pay $760 more in state and local taxes each year to maintain current levels of service.

WITHOUT TRAVEL SPENDING, TEXAS HOUSEHOLDS WOULD EACH PAY $760 MORE IN STATE AND LOCAL TAXES ANNUALLY

Travel spending generates revenue across many different categories with the largest share being sales tax followed by motor fuel, hotel occupancy and other taxes like auto rental, alcoholic beverage, franchise and cigarette and tobacco. Taxes generated by travel spending support public sector jobs like firefighters, police officers or teachers.
